

ABOUT PLYMOUTH
WHITEMARSH
VOLLEYBALL

The Plymouth Whitemarsh Volleyball Team participates in the Suburban One League and is a part of the American Conference. Last year PW finished 3rd out of 7 teams with a 7-5 Conference record.

Last year the team had one 1st Team All-League Player, one 3rd Team All-League Player and an Honorable Mention All-League Player.

This year, the team's head coach, David Stewart, has decided to retire from coaching volleyball at Plymouth Whitemarsh High School. His successor, Michael Nguyen, is coming from 4 years of assistant coaching of the girl's varsity team at St. Basil Academy in Jenkintown, PA. He will look to build upon the success that Coach Stewart has had, and intends to instill his passion for volleyball to every player he coaches. Coach Stewart has created a strong volleyball program the expectations are high. The team looks to be a major player in the post-season this upcoming Fall 2009 Season.

Michael Nguyen is assisted by Sarah Groman and Casey McLenigan. Sarah played volleyball at Bucknell and is a returning member of the 2008 PW Volleyball Coaching Staff. Casey currently attends West Chester University and is a first time member of the coaching staff. She is an alumnus of Plymouth Whitemarsh High School.
